

BKR International adds member firms in Belgium

21 May 2014 by IAB editorial

BKR International has added two Belgian firms, Cnockaert & Salens and Rewrite, to its association.

Rewrite, a former firm of Moore Stephens International, has three offices in Charleroi, Liège and Nivelles. It went through five merges in the last past five years and currently has 30 employees, including five partners.

Cnockaert & Salens has 23 employees and 7 partners working in three offices in Bruges, Ghent and Leuven.

BKR executive director responsible for Europe, the Middle East and Africa Stephen Hamlet said that brings the association in Belgium to a total of three independent member firms.

Hamlet added these three firms give the international association coverage for audit, tax and accounting services in the main regions of Wallonia and Flanders.

Related links

BKR International

Cnockaert & Salens

Rewrite

Latest News

BKR International adds member firms in Belgium
BKR International has added two Belgian firms, Cnockaert & Salens and Rewrite, to its association.

INPACT International add Ukrainian member firm
INPACT International has added Ukrainian firm CREDO-AUDIT to its association.

Rödl & Partner grows due to the Mittelstand bonanza

Rödl & Partner has reported an increase in revenues of 6.2% to €298.5m ($409.4m) in the year to 31 December 2013, benefiting from the economic bonanza enjoyed by the Mittelstand, or German family-owned businesses, which the firm serves.

Chinese regulators look to ban foreign auditors
The Chinese regulators have opened a consultation on proposed rules to ban foreign auditors from auditing mainland Chinese companies, local media reports

Moore Stephens International acquires US firm
Moore Stephens International member firm Carr, Riggs & Ingram (CRI) has acquired Tampa-based firm Auditwerx, which will merge as a CRI division.

See all news