

BKR International adds Nigerian firm

25 February 2014 by IAB editorial

BKR International has added Nigerian firm Adebola Sobanjo to its association.

Adebola Sobanjo counts two partners and 45 staff. The firm which was established 30 years ago provides audit, accounting and tax services, with offices in Abuja, Lagos and Port-Harcourt.

BKR executive director responsible for Europe, the Middle East and Africa Stephen Hamlet said: "Nigeria is predicted to overtake South Africa as the continent's largest economy, with a stable currency and inflation having been kept at a five-year low of under 8% towards the end of last year."

He added that with the potential development of increased foreign investment into the country, "it was important for Adebola Sobanjo to join an international group; in as much as it was for BKR International to secure a solid member firm in Nigeria".

Related link:

BKR International

Adebola Sobanjo

Latest News

Deloitte opens Rwanda office

Deloitte has opened an office in Rwanda's capital Kigali as part of Deloitte East Africa practice. The firm in Rwanda will offer assurance, consulting, financial, tax and risk advisory services to clients in both the private and public sectors.

BKR International adds Nigerian firm

BKR International has added Nigerian firm Adebola Sobanjo to its association.

Grant Thornton UK hires UK banking chairman

David Hitchcock has been recruited by Grant Thornton UK to the newly created role of chairman of UK Banking.

AGN appoints Central and South American regional director

AGN International has appointed Mireia Rovira as its regional director for Central and South America region.

GMN adds Indian firm

GMN International has added Nisar & Kumar from India to its association.

See all news